

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- What if don't own a pistol?

You can rent one of ours for $35

- I am a beginner, can I take the CPL course?

Yes you can. All of our instructors are dedicated to giving all the additional help on a per student basis as needed. We have had all types of students come to our classes from beginners all the way to advanced. We have done classes for special needs persons as well. So don't feel nervous about being a "rookie" there is a lot of people that will be in the same boat. We feel confident that you will leave feeling more secure with a firearm along with the confidence to conceal and carry.

- Do I need to have shooting experience to attend your CPL Class?

No. We have taught many students with no experience how to shoot as well as the proper handling of a pistol.

- I'm concerned about using my credit card over the Internet to register for your class. Do I have other options?

We require you to register online for the class that you want to attend. You can either pay the balance in full which you will get the discounted price at checkout. You may pay by check or cash at the day of the class at our regular price. Our classes are normally full, in preparation for our classes we have cost that are paid in advance for materials, range time etc.....that is why we encourage you to pay in advance. Our site is secure, it is tested on a regular basis. We use Shopify and PayPal services for payments which is also secure. If you still need additional options, call Dan Maldonado at (810) 625-0092 to make arrangements.

- How old must I be to take the CPL Class?

21 years of age is the age needed to obtain your CPL permit. Although we suggest that if the person is under the age of 21 they take the class shortly before their 21st birthday.

- Is there a dress code for your CPL class?

Yes, no open toed shoes and no low cut shirts to protect from hot brass casings.

- I don't live in the same county where your class is being given. Is this O.K.?

Yes. The class that you are taking is called Personal Protection in the Home Course. As a NRA Training Instructor, I am certified to teach this course all over the United States. This course meets the State of Michigan training requirements that you must meet in order to apply for your concealed pistol license (CPL).

- How do I apply for my CPL?

First you must take your completed application along with your course completion certificate to the County Clerk's Office of the county in which you reside. There, you will submit your application and pay the application fee. There, your fingerprints will be taken and your background check will begin. Once the county gun board receives the fingerprint comparison report, they will issue or deny the license within 45 days.

- How long will it take me to get my CPL?

Depending on the county in which you are applying. We have been seeing up to 6 weeks.
